

Toronto Real Estate Board Members' Charitable Contributions Program

Eligibility Criteria:

1. Nominees or submitters must be Members of TREB in good standing or nominee may be nominated by the local association or the community organization they served.
2. Nominees or submitters should have contributed to a program that improves the livability of a local community. Those activities are not limited to real estate or housing issues, and may include such things as crime prevention, youth mentoring, and homelessness prevention.
3. Nominees should have made a significant contribution of personal time, but contributions of money, materials, or other resources will be considered as well.
4. Nominees will be judged on level of personal contribution, impact of personal contribution, broadness of impact, and the project's suitability as a role model for other REALTORS®.
5. The exposure is intended to recognize individual contributions, not brokerage or company wide efforts. However, if an individual can be singled out as instrumental to the success of a group effort, he or she will be considered. If the achievements of two people (such as a married couple or co-founders of an organization) absolutely cannot be separated, they can submit as a pair and their entry will be considered as one.
6. Nominees or submitters should be able to document the results of their individual involvement through published reports and/or testimonials from the organization they served or the people they helped.
8. Nominations or submissions must be accompanied by a completed entry form to be considered.
9. REALTORS® may nominate themselves or may be nominated by another TREB Member, local association or the community organization they served.
